SENATOR JACK LATVALA represents Florida's 20th District, which includes Largo, Clearwater, Belleair, Belleair Bluffs, Safety Harbor, Dunedin, Tarpon Springs, Oldsmar and portions of unincorporated Pinellas County such as Palm Harbor. He first served in the Florida Senate from 1994 to 2002. During that time he served as Senate Majority Leader and sponsored several significant pieces of legislation that ultimately became law including Florida Forever, the preservation program; creation of Tampa Bay Water, a regional water supply planning model; and the outlawing of predatory title loans in Florida. He successfully ran for the Senate again in 2010. Combining both of his terms of service, more than 175 pieces of legislation sponsored by Senator Latvala have become law, and he has received nearly 200 honors and awards for his legislative service and accomplishments.
